CROW WILL SEEK FULL SENATE TERM; ILLNESS NO CURB

Positive Announcement at His Uniontown Home Kills Opposite Reports

SAYS HE'LL BE ON DECK WHEN CONGRESS CONVENES

United States Senator William E Crew today said positively that he will be a candidate for the full term as Senator in succession to the late Philander C. Knox.

The declaration, made at his home in Unionown, was in effect a steam-roller flattening reports that Illness has driven him to the point where he is reconciled to yielding his ambition of years.

A short time after the sudden death of Senator Knex at his Washington home, Governor Sproul named State Chairman Crow for the Senate vacancy.
